DEPARTMENT SOCIAL WELFARE

Government of Delhi on one hand is making concerted efforts to ensure that the weaker sections of the society, disadvantaged groups and physically challenged persons get better care & support and on the other hand through another batch of schemes and programmes, the Government is marching ahead towards providing social security to aged and other vulnerable groups. For undertaking all such welfare measures, the Social Welfare Department is the nodal department, for which they have at their disposal a network of residential care homes and non institutional services spread all over Delhi. Details of programmes implemented by the Department are given below:

Schemes and Programmes

WELFARE OF SENIOR CITIZENS

Government of Delhi has brought out “a policy for senior citizens” which is in consonance with the National Policy, at the same time addresses the specific concerns of senior citizens in NCT of Delhi. The policy considers persons of 60 years and more in age as “Senior Citizens”. The policy envisages ensuring welfare of Senior Citizens and improving quality of their lives. It aims at providing assistance to enable them to cope with the problems of old age. It also proposes affirmative action by the Government Departments in collaboration with civil society for ensuring that the existing public services for Senior Citizens are made more user friendly and sensitive to the needs of Senior Citizens. Government of Delhi would also consider to have a public education mechanism to prepare people for old age persons in order to ensure that they are able to grow gracefully and remain financially secure in their later years. As per census 2001, the total population of Senior Citizens (60 years & above), both males and females, living in urban and rural areas in Delhi, was 7,19,650 against a total population of 1,38,50,507. Out of these, 3,66,466 (51%) were males and 3,53,184 (49%) females. There are a number of schemes being implemented by Social Welfare Department for Welfare of Senior Citizens. The prominent among them is Senior Citizen Pension scheme.

There is one scheme which is being implemented by Department of Social Welfare under Financial Assistance Section for welfare of Senior Citizens . Under Senior Citizen Pension Scheme, Senior Citizen Pension is remitted on quarterly basis in the saving accounts of the beneficiaries maintained either in the bank or Post Office, through Electronic Clearing System of RBI. The resident of Delhi for 5 year with proof and above 60 yrs and are having Family income less than Rs. 60,000/- per annual are eligible. The income does not include income of independent sons and daughters. The recommendation of the area MLA / MP Gazetted Officer of State /Central Govt. is necessary. The applicant must have an ID proof as listed in notification. In 2009-10 an amount of Rs. 310 crore was utilized and about 249,588 beneficiaries were covered and in 2010-11 (up to December 2010) an amount of Rs 30175.03 lacs was utilized and about 306451 beneficiaries were covered. From April 2008 , rate of pension has been enhanced from Rs. 600/- month to Rs. 1000/- per month.

The Department has a Plan Scheme of Setting up of Old Age Homes in various parts of Delhi. Two homes are already functioning at Kalkaji and Tilak Vihar. The construction of old Age Home at Bindapur and Dwarka, Sector 8 has been done by DSIIDC., The Department has constructed two old age homes and decided to convert these homes by shifting the Mentally retarded home to decongest the mentally challenged home, Avantika. The matter is under process.

The Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, Government of India issued a “ National Policy on Senior Citizens “ in January 1999 . The Policy provides broad guidance in various areas for helping Senior Citizens in the country to realize their full potential. The Department of Social Welfare, Government of NCT Delhi has accordingly formulated a policy, which while being in consonance with the National Policy addresses the concerns of the older citizens in NCT of Delhi.

In pursuance of the policy the government notified “ The Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act 2007” which provides for effective provisions for the maintenance and welfare of parents and senior citizens guaranteed and recognized under the Constitution. The policy envisages ensuring welfare of Senior Citizens and improving the quality of their lives. It aims at providing assistance to enable them to cope up with the problems of old age. It also proposes affirmative action by the Government Departments in collaboration with civil society for ensuring that the existing public services for Senior Citizens are made more user friendly and sensitive to the need of Senior Citizens. The Government recognizes Senior Citizens in NCT of Delhi as individuals worthy to respect, care and protection. There have been initiatives undertaken by the government to provide a supportive environment to Senior Citizens to live with purpose, peace and dignity.

The Government of Delhi has notified and set up maintenance Tribunal in all Nine Districts to provide for more effective provisions for the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens guaranteed and recognized under the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007.

The Maintenance Tribunals functions from the Office premises of ADMs of the respective Districts and the DC (New Delhi).

The other notable achievements is that there are altogether 65 recreation centers being run in partnership with Civil Society Organization in different areas of Delhi benefiting all cases of Sr. citizens and another 28 new Organization for running recreation centers is to be for further process and operational zed in this year. The Government of Delhi is committed towards well-being and holistic development of the elderly citizen in Delhi.

Under the plan scheme of Welfare Programme for Aged Persons the aim is to cover the Honorarium/ Sitting allowance for non-official member of Maintenance Tribunal, Workshop expenses, expenses of construction of Old Age Home and inspection expenses of Recreation center. Further to set up Appellate Tribunal to be constituted under the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007. an appointment of member maintenance & Appellate Tribunal is under process .
