Sir,

With reference to above mentioned subject we had received a letter of Department of Social Welfare, GNCTD, Govt. of Delhi, Delhi gate, File No. 82/914/CPD/ADIII/DSW/2013/PT File/20565 dated, 13th November 2015 through Ashtavakra Rehabilitation Centre via letter No. ARC/2015-16/304 dated 10th December 2015 (copy enclosed).

Your ward Tarun Jain studying at School for the Handicapped came across an injury accidentally while playing in ground during recess and was provided with First Aid at the School.

As you know that all students under intellectually challenged group (MR) studying at School for the Handicapped are insured under Niramaya Scheme (A Health Insurance Scheme for the Welfare of Person with Autism, Cerebral Palsy, Mental Retardation & Multiple Disability) through Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment, Govt. of India, and your son Tarun Jain is also Insured under the said scheme.

Name Tarun Jain

Niramaya Health ID is- O55671549319082014N

Niramaya Application ID is-71549319082014

You are here by requested to kindly provide the copy of the Bills of the treatment availed for it submission to National Trust for its reimbursement through the Nirmaya Scheme at the earliest.

In case of any further query or assistance feel free to contact Ms. Priyanka Pandey (Nirmaya Health Scheme Coordinator) or the Principal with prior appointment.

Hope we are able to provide support guidance affection & care to your child as per your acceptation which is not only our duty but mission.

Regards

Principal
